To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to you in regards to Makayla Langdale. We have employed Makayla as a babysitter for my son Luke for over a year. She has the very important task of picking him up from school, feeding him a snack, helping him complete his homework, and entertaining him, all while making sure he is safe, for several hours per day.

While she does a wonderful job with our son, I'm most impressed with her communication to me and my husband. She is clear and timely with all correspondence, keeping us informed and asking questions when necessary.

She is always on time and manages changes to schedules and timelines with flexibility and accuracy. I work with a lot of young adults and Makayla is one of the most mature teens I know when it comes to work ethic and communication.

I would highly recommend Makayla Langdale in any work environment she chooses to pursue.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any further questions or concerns.

Thank you very much,
